Build a Blossom Waltz

Wind the key and the bouquet starts to dance. Blossom Waltz is a pastel garden in a box: eight layered flowers in a striped vase turn slowly on a little stage while a real wind-up movement plays. Every petal is cut from colored wood, with veins drawn by the laser. Build it in an evening, give it to someone, and watch them wind it again and again.

What's inside: 8 sheets that press out by hand

IN THE BOX

158 wooden parts on 8 sheets, 1 birch dowel, 1 wind-up music movement, wax stick, sandpaper, picture instruction booklet.

EASY TO BUILD

- Every joint is a press fit. No glue.
- Big picture steps, part codes on every sheet.
